

Counseling Center
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
Position Title: Clinical Counselor

The University of Illinois Counseling Center is hiring two or more clinical counselors. Successful candidates will have solid experience and expertise in serving college student populations. There are openings for generalists with strong demonstrated interest and experience in one or more of the following desired clinical and outreach areas and student concerns: International; Middle-Eastern and North African (MENA) Diaspora; Native American; LGBTQ+; Crisis/Triage Management; Body Image and Eating Disturbances. Licensed Psychologists and clinicians with BIPOC specializations are strongly encouraged to apply. The Center is an accredited training site through the American Psychological Association with over 50 staff, which includes clinicians, doctoral interns, academic professional staff, and administrative staff as well as graduate assistants, undergraduate paraprofessionals, and practicum counselors.

The University of Illinois is located in the twin cities of Champaign and Urbana in central Illinois. The University of Illinois campus is situated between the three major metropolitan areas of Chicago, Indianapolis, and St. Louis and is considered one of the top comprehensive research public universities in the nation. Our staff works on campus with an academically talented and ethnically diverse student population, including 18 percent international students, 16 percent Asian students, 11 percent Latino/a students, and 6 percent African American students, for a total enrollment of over 52,300 students. The University of Illinois is a traditional residential campus with nearly 20 percent of the students living in campus housing.

University of Illinois Counseling Center employees enjoy a high quality of life with excellent compensation; competitive health, dental, retirement, and vision benefits; and education assistance programs. Individuals with diverse backgrounds, experience and ideas who embrace and value diversity and inclusivity are encouraged to apply.

The University of Illinois is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action employer that recruits and hires qualified candidates without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, national origin, disability or veteran status. For more information, visit <http://go.illinois.edu/EEO>.

Primary Job Functions

The primary function of this position is to serve as a generalist for clinical service provision. Additionally, the successful candidate will be a well-rounded professional, who works comfortably both individually and as a team member in providing effective outreach and prevention programs. Our Center's mission places a high value on serving a diverse population of students in a culturally competent manner as we provide a variety of services to assist students with psychological, educational, social, and developmental concerns.

Job duties and responsibilities for this position as a clinical counselor (masters level) may include, but are not limited to:

- Providing time-limited counseling services for individuals and couples.
- Providing outreach and clinical services that address the needs of the general student population as well as the needs of traditionally underserved populations.
- Managing clinical crises and triage services.

- Providing group counseling services through a general therapy group or a group that addresses a specific clinical issue or the needs of a particular population of students.
- Participating in psychological emergency and trauma response.
- Training/supervising doctoral interns, practicum counselors and undergraduate paraprofessional service providers.
- Participating in other outreach, training, and consultation team activities.
- Participating in various Student Affairs activities and committees.
- Other duties as assigned.

Job duties and responsibilities for this position as a clinical counselor for Psychologist (doctoral level) may include, but are not limited to:

- Providing time-limited counseling services for individuals and couples.
- Providing outreach and clinical services that address the needs of the general student population as well as the needs of traditionally underserved populations.
- Training/supervising doctoral interns, practicum counselors and undergraduate paraprofessional service providers; supervision of APA accredited health psychology interns; clinical supervision of unlicensed staff.
- Managing clinical crises and triage services.
- Providing training and leadership in psychological assessment; participating in other outreach, training, and consultation team activities.
- Providing group counseling services through a general therapy group or a group that addresses a specific clinical issue or the needs of a particular population of students.
- Participating in psychological emergency and trauma response.
- Participating in various Student Affairs activities and committees.
- Contribution to research and assessment area.
- Other duties as assigned.

Education

- For clinicians having a terminal doctoral degree the following is required: doctorate in clinical psychology, clinical/community psychology, counseling psychology, or related field.
- For clinicians having a terminal master's level degree the following is required: master's degree in social work.
- Degree completed by start date is required. For psychologists will consider ABD with completion of an APA accredited internship.

Licensure

- Licensed in Illinois or license eligible background as a psychologist required for candidates with doctoral degree.
- Licensed Clinical Social Worker in Illinois or license eligible background is required for master's level degreed clinicians and all post degree supervision hours must be completed by start date.
- No other licensure will be considered.

Experience

- Demonstrated experience functioning at a high level as a generalist counselor in a diverse setting is required.
- Demonstrated interest, expertise, and experience in clinical or outreach work in an area of special emphasis and/or training/supervision is preferred.
- Previous experience in a college counseling center preferred.
- For psychologists: in depth supervised training in psychological assessment, training & supervision is required.

Knowledge Requirements

Fluency in a second language is a preferred qualification for at least one position.

Starting Date

August 16, 2021 or mutually acceptable date.

Appointment Terms

12-month term with 24-vacation days; full-time regular position.

Salary

Salary is competitive and commensurate with level of education and experience.

To apply, please create your candidate profile through <http://jobs.illinois.edu> and upload your cover letter, vita, and contact information for three references. For full consideration, please apply by March 25, 2021. Interviews and inquiries may take place prior to the closing date; however, no hiring decisions will be made until after that date; applications will continue to be accepted until all positions are filled. Interviews may be conducted before the deadline. Applicants are strongly encouraged to submit three current letters of recommendation to:

Mary Barker, HR Associate – mdietz@illinois.edu

Additionally, this position is a security sensitive position.

The University of Illinois conducts criminal background checks on all job candidates upon acceptance of a contingent offer. The University of Illinois System requires candidates selected for hire to disclose any documented finding of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment and to authorize inquiries to current and former employers regarding findings of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment. For more information, visit Policy on Consideration of Sexual Misconduct in Prior Employment. As a qualifying federal contractor, the University of Illinois System uses E-Verify to verify employment eligibility.