

Perfectionism Workshops

Many of us are taught to believe that perfectionism is a good thing and will allow us to be better students. While there's nothing wrong with striving to be your best, aiming for perfection can cause problems. This three-part workshop series will focus on:

- Exploring the origins of perfectionism.
- Examine the impact of perfectionism on daily life.
- Discuss ways to better manage perfectionism and live a more balanced life.

Days and Time: For Spring 2021, we're offering this three-part online workshop twice. Series one will be offered on Tuesday, February 16, February 23, and March 2 from 1:30 to 3 p.m. The second series will be offered Tuesday, March 16, March 23, and March 30 from 3:30 to 5 p.m.

To Register: Register online at counselingcenter.illinois.edu/Perfectionism. We encourage you to attend as many sessions as your schedule allows. Please fill out this form to register. Be sure to register soon—these workshops have a limited number of seats available.
